

The Harrow Times is a weekly newspaper published every Thursday, sold in selected outlets and then delivered free to more than 71,000 homes. Established in March 1997, the paper has quickly become an integral part of the community.

The Times ensures that the entire community is served. Each edition features content from around the borough making it essential for readers in Harrow-on-the-Hill, Pinner, Stanmore, Kenton, Kingsbury, Wealdstone and all points in between.

The paper boasts strong local news coverage, in-depth features which explore the real stories behind the headlines, comprehensive arts and entertainment, a hugely popular competitions page alongside comprehensive classified and situations vacant sections which lead the way with their easy-to-read style.

Our growing online newspapers provide a useful service for those who want to keep up with what is happening day by day.
